

Psychology IB Teacher (part-time job)JOB PROFILE

START DATE 25 Aug 2025, working schedule - 4-6 hours per week.

We are seeking a qualified and experienced IB DP Psychology teacher to teach Diploma Programme higher level (HL) and standard level (SL) Psychology with experience and knowledge to combine with courses such as Theory of Knowledge (TOK) to complete the scheduled assignment. The candidate will have a strong background in teaching students to research, identify sources, and write. This candidate will be highly knowledgeable in developing and aligning curriculum collaboratively with Individual and Societies department members.

Job Requirements:

- Utilise digital tools to transform instruction and support student learning.
- Support inquiry-based and project-based learning strategies.
- Commitment to the values of the continuum of an International Baccalaureate education.
- Fluent verbal and written communication skills in English.
- Ability to be flexible in an ever-changing world of education.
- Positive and innovative mindset even in challenging situations.
- Expectations of high standards of learning and behaviour from students; and the ability to challenge all students on an individual basis.
- A willingness to contribute to the wider school community.
- Caring nature towards students and families.
- Compliant with Child Safeguarding Requirements.

Job Responsibilities:

- Planning, assessing, and reporting student progress.
- Take the lead from Programme Coordinators with regards to unit planning, assessments and recording evidence of learning;
- Collaboration with department teachers and grade level teachers weekly/monthly.
- Effective use of ManageBac for unit plans, recording evidence of learning and student feedback;
- Promote a safe working environment for students and staff.
- To promote the ideals and mission of the school and our three pillars, Creativity, Character and Connectivity;
- Contribute to the school community by being a team player willing to collaborate with a diverse group of teachers and staff members;
- Be a role model for children.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Arts/Teaching or equivalent required in Psychology courses;
- At least 2+ years of classroom teaching experience;
- International Baccalaureate DP/MYP experience preferred + already obtained IB certificate - will be a great plus;

Benefits:

- Competitive pay and compensation package;
- Annual performance related bonus;
- Free breakfasts & lunches;